

WALNUT HILL
COMMUNITY CHURCH

Church Profile

Walnut Hill Community Church is a multi-campus church that functions as one church with many locations. Each campus location shares the same mission, vision and values, but expresses them in a way that is relevant and effective to its local community. The church's vision is "Igniting a passion for Jesus in Connecticut, New England and around the world" and it invests its resources in providing biblical preaching, serving the local community, developing the next generation and building a strong sense of belonging among its congregation.

The church was founded in 1982 by a group of families that had begun meeting in a home.

In 2017, the weekly church attendance averaged 2,500. It is estimated that more than 4,000 people consider Walnut Hill home. Attendees come from a wide range of denominational and cultural backgrounds, giving the church a reputation for being warm and welcoming.

On October 2, 2016, Walnut Hill transitioned from having one senior pastor to a team leadership model where three pastors, Brian Mowrey, Adam DePasquale and Craig Mowrey, serve in partnership as lead pastors, taking on the traditional responsibilities of senior pastor, while continuing to oversee and advance key areas in the life of the church. The church staff is made up of nearly 50 employees (full time and part time) and is deeply committed to excellence, honor and unity.

As a church, Walnut Hill prioritizes ministry based upon its four family values. They are: Seeking God, Caring for One Another, Serving Together and Reaching Out.
